DEDICATION

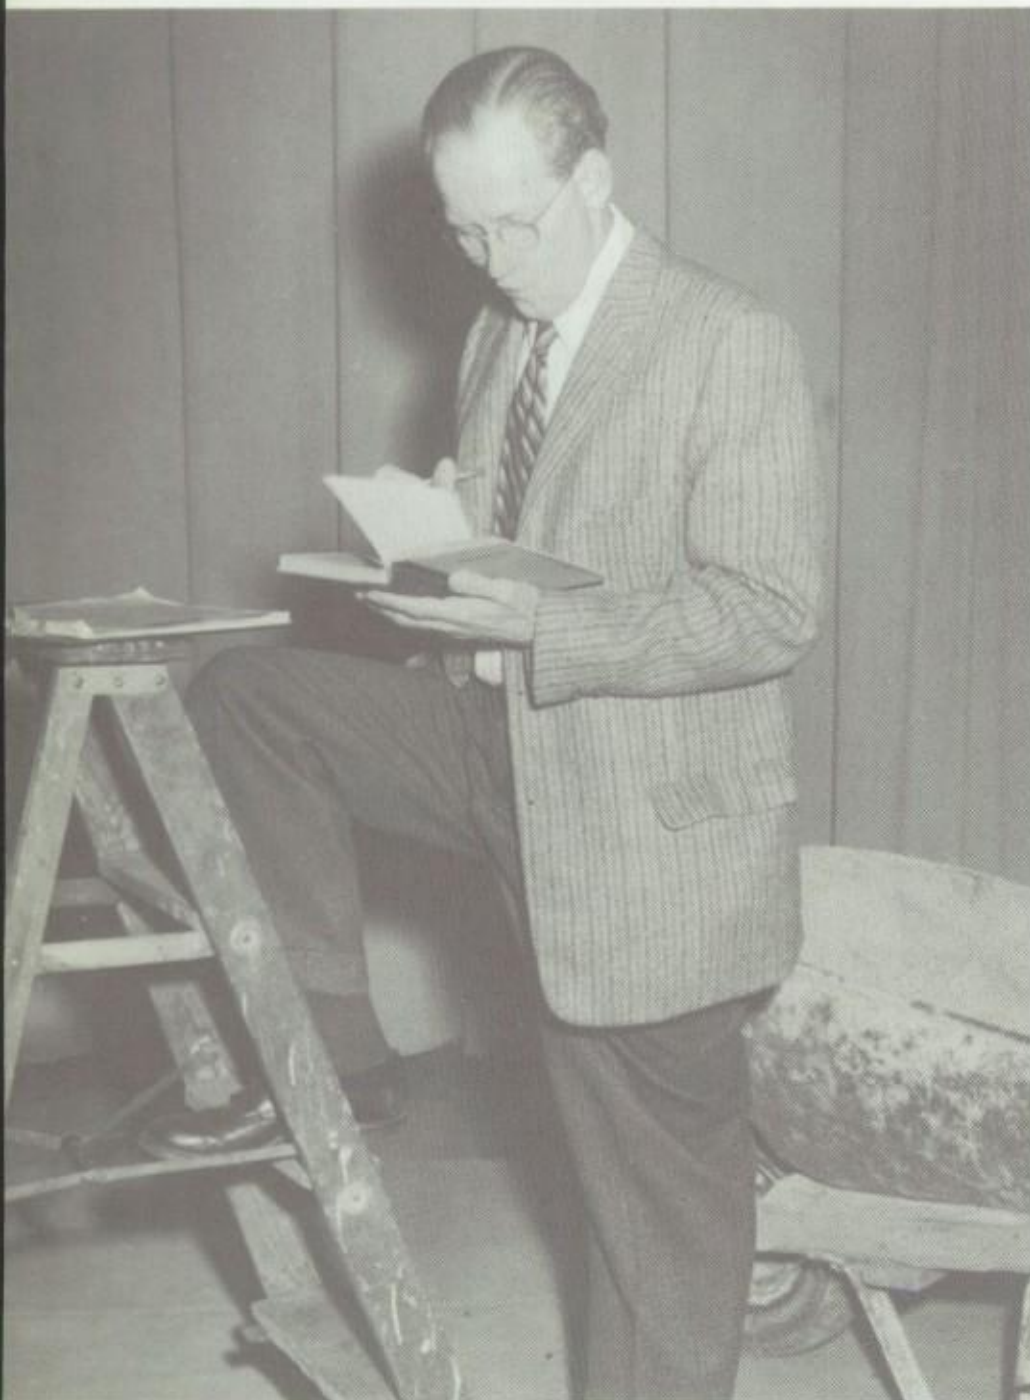

With deep appreciation for the extensive contribution toward the education and mental development of the youth of this high school, we, the class of 1970, dedicate this annual to Mr. Gustav Wincent.

Mr. Wincent has labored for years with the sincere motive to enlighten his students with the knowledge of foreign languages. In addition to the time spent in the classroom, Mr. Wincent donates numerous hours to the National Honor Society, French Club, and the Junior Classical League.

The pride for our school and country that Mr. Wincent has instilled in us will influence all our lives and lead to the improvement of our country.

To know Mr. Wincent is to know a friend.

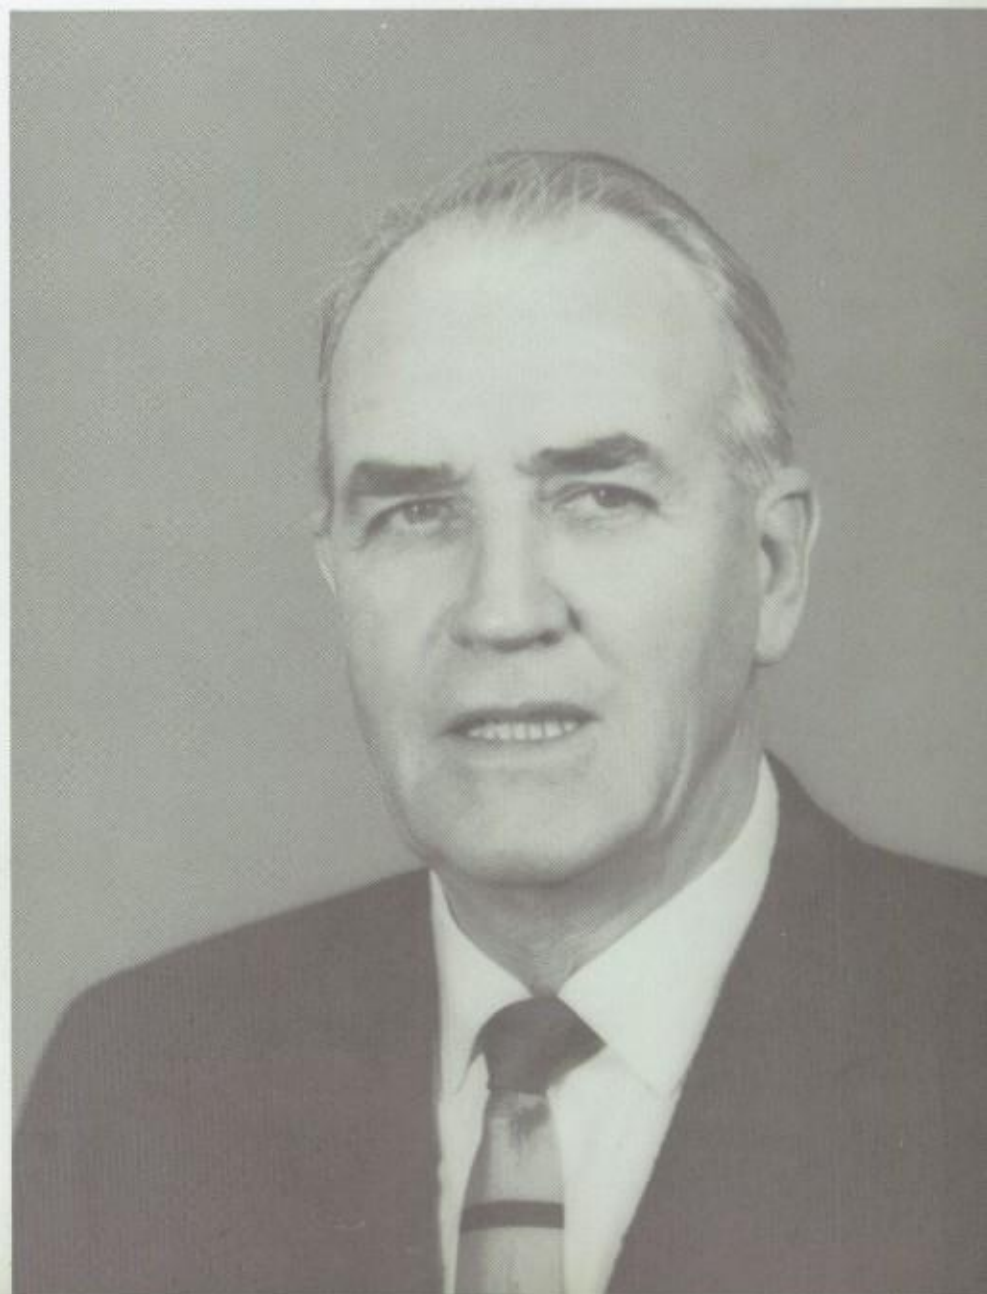

IN MEMORIAM

The students and faculty of Piqua Central would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute to two truly dedicated men.

Mr. Robert Richardson, affectionately known as 'Pop' to all who knew him, served unselfishly as Spanish teacher and dramatics director during his many years here. Even after his retirement, he continued to help with productions and influence the lives of countless students who knew and loved him. None who had the opportunity to know him will ever forget him.

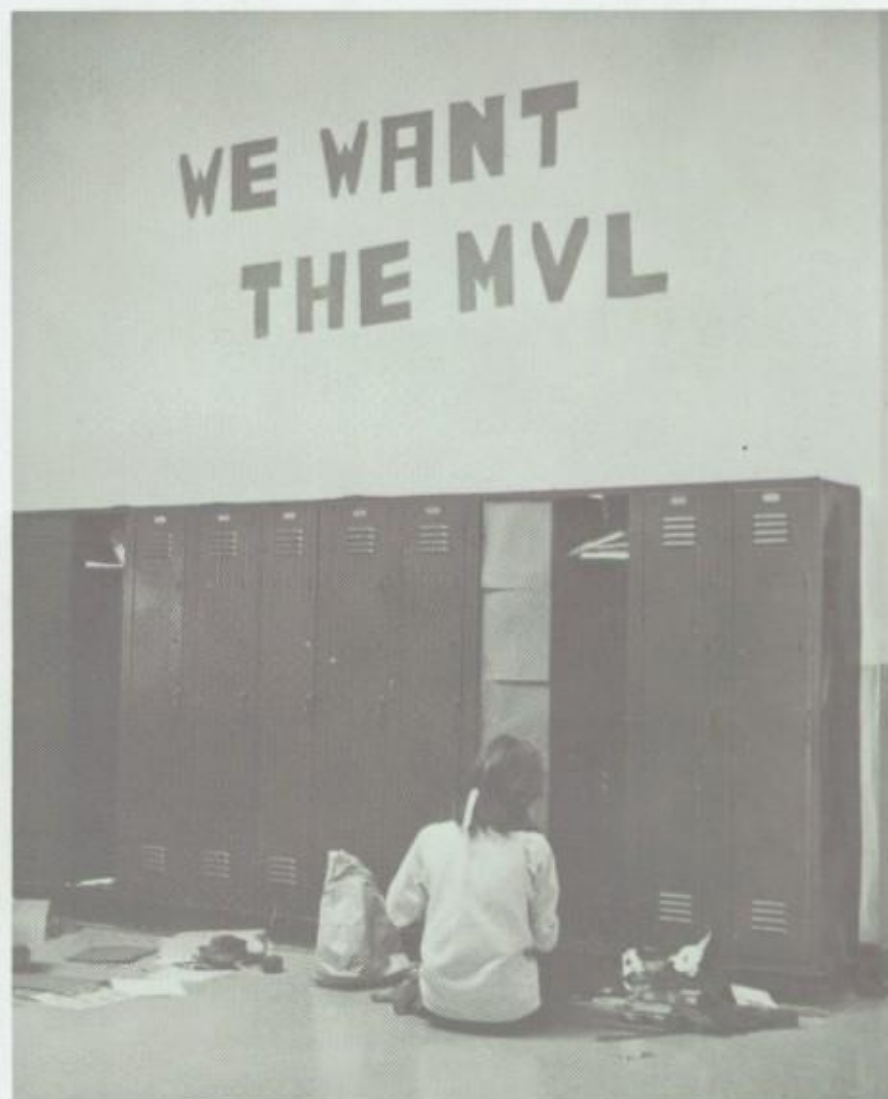

Another distinguished man, who was respected not only by the students and faculty, but by the entire community, was Mr. George P. Wertz. Not only was he an outstanding biology teacher, but he was one of the finest football coaches and athletic directors Piqua shall ever have. Last year, the citizens joined together to dedicate Wertz Stadium to him and honor him with a trip to the Olympics in Mexico. These are truly fitting memorials to such an inspiring man.

To dream the impossible dream . . .

"They tell me you started by firelight . . ."

Or is the dream impossible?

We're off to get a victory !!

"And would you like to be Queen for a Day?"

"I've got to get to my island!"

... to fight the unbeatable foe ...

Whose side are you guys on?

"out, Sir Knight, or I'll run thee through!"

"You'll do what ... to whom!?"

... to bear with unbearable sorrow ...

"Aw, Mom — do we have to wash behind our ears?"

Smile, Sue, they're only 42 minutes long!

A lonely fieldhouse after the Troy game.

"Uh, hi there, Mr. Scanlin!"

New boy in class

. . . to run where the brave dare not go . . .

OK, you guys — where d'you put the statue?

"Oh Coach, I'm too tired to run!"

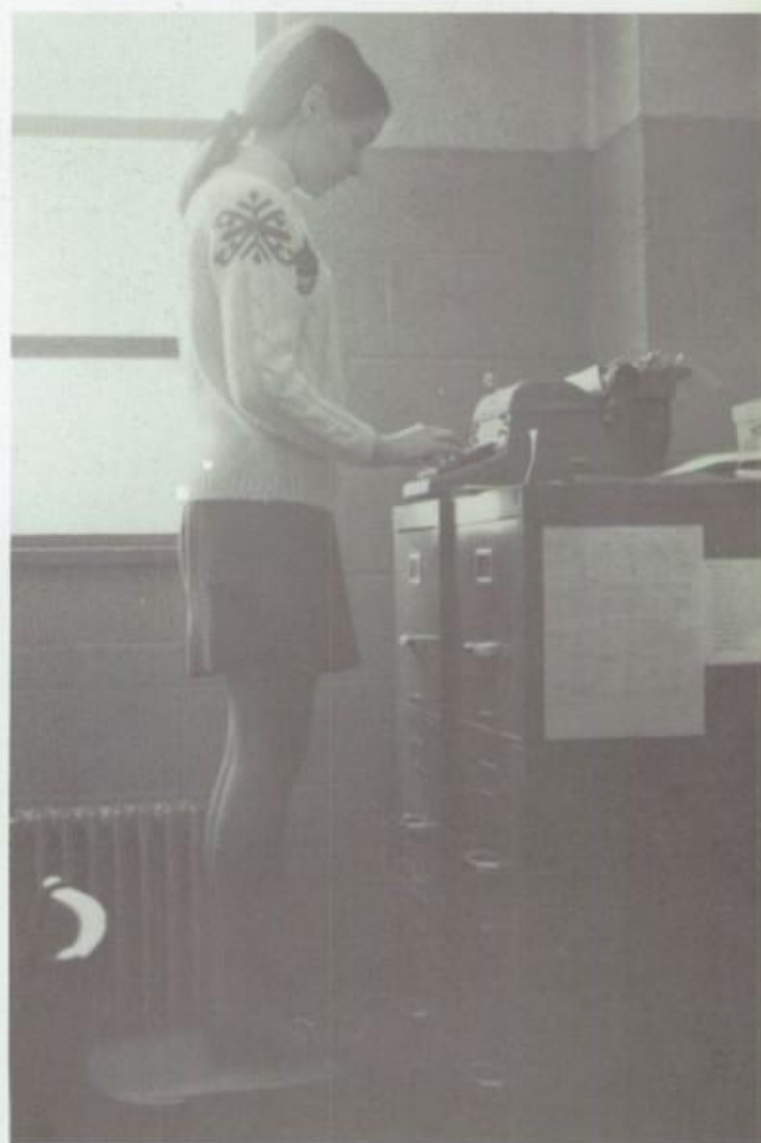

"I beg your pardon!
I'm not that kind of girl!"

... to right
the unrightable wrong ...

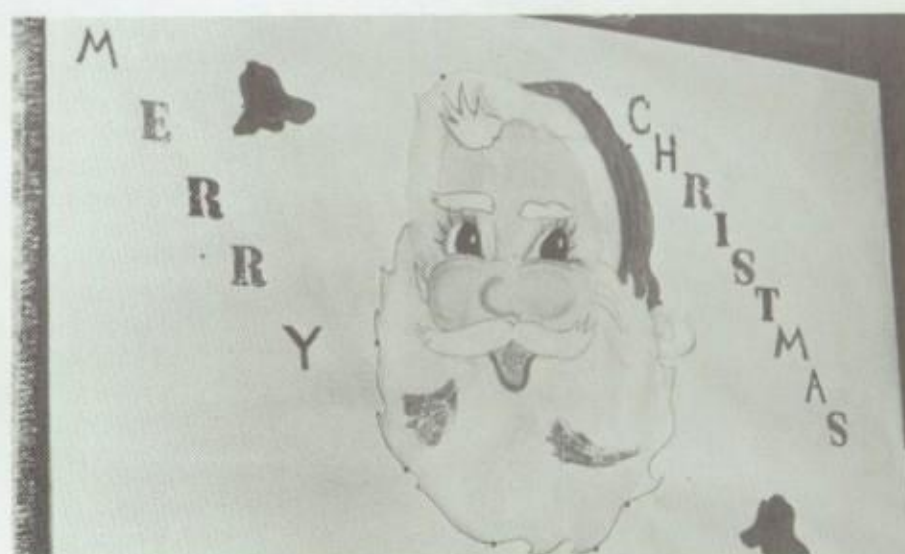

"Oh, Dave, what did
I say this time?"

To write the un-writable wrong?

"Here she is, Mom, my fiancé!"

... to love pure and chaste from afar ...

... to try when your arms are too weary . . .

CLASS MOTTO

Knowledge itself is power

We, the seniors of 1970, have come to the end of our careers at Piqua Central and it is not without sorrow that we do so. But our sorrow of this ending is mixed with the anticipation of beginning new careers, new learning, and new relations. Quieter moments reveal the sting of regret and sorrow we feel in our hearts. For perhaps the first time, we realize what it will mean to leave the good friends and the school which have been so predominant in the past three years of our lives. Graduation is not only a time for joy and contemplation of the future, but also for reflection on the past. Our days at Piqua Central will be the foundation on which our lives are built.

*"For everything there is a time —
 a time to begin and a time to end."*

Brad Miller

"I bet you say that to all the guys!"

Those were the good old days!

"Mommy, I just took those dirty white covers off all the keys."

You must have been a beautiful baby . . .

What a man!

"I just got bubble gum all over the doggy!"

"You mean I can't shave the pussycat?"

"Is my flap down!"

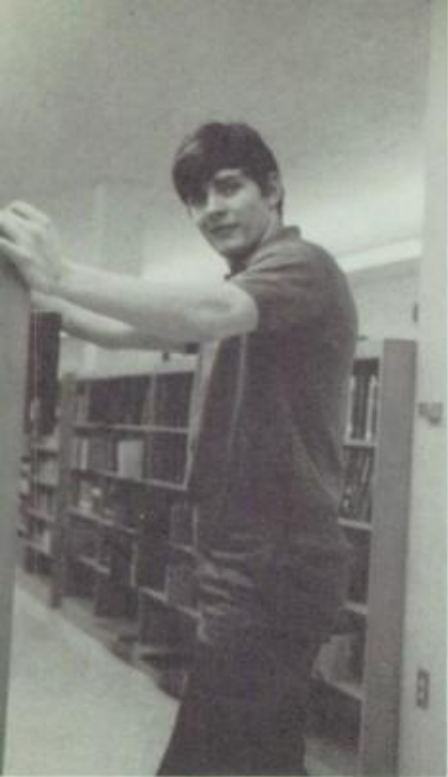

This hayride might be enlightening!

"Look Ma, no hands!"

"Hi, there! I'm Mrs. Reed your friendly librarian!"

Speak no evil, hear no evil, but it's okay to peek!

It is true you swim in your bathtub, Judy?

"Want to bet I can get this whole apple in my mouth?"

WOW!!

"You aren't really going to take that picture are you?"

"French stories are just like I thought they would be!"

Surprise!

cause baby look at you now !!!

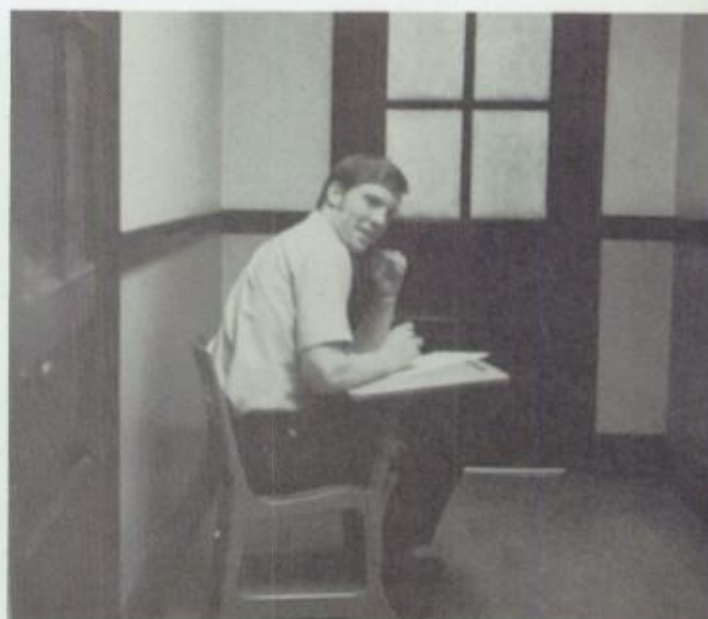

"Ah, you won't all Mom will you?"

"And my boyfriend writes me pages and pages every night."

"Are you sure this is the book we have to read for health?"

Hey Dave — what's happened to the teacher's pet?

"Mommy, will I be handsome?"

"A new pair of glasses might be nice."

"I am the ghost of Favorite's past!"

"You're sure these aren't my play clothes?"

"I just ate a candle, Mommy!"

"Folks, come on down to honest Bill's . . ."

Double your pleasure, Double your fun!

"I just polished the woodwork with Baby Magic!"

"Your hands had better not be cold!"

Our Editor-in-chief

"Sir, my legs are cold!"

"I'm stuck!"

"Please color another picture with me, Bonnie."

"Aw, I'd rather be the preacher!"

"I used to be only THAT high!"

"But Bob said that sand was harmless to eat . . . What's 'Harmless'?"

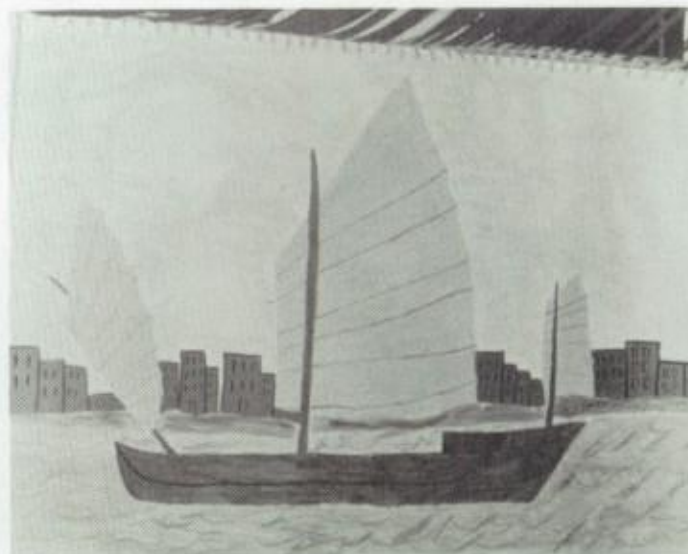

"Only my hairdresser knows for sure!"

"We beat the Washington kids with fewer cavities!"

"Does my hair still look alright?"

learned how to use the bow and arrow correctly and safely and have fun at the same time.

RATED OFFICIALS

Seated: Sue Stewart, Karla Hunt, Deb Smith, Deb Stump, Julie McBee.

Standing: Kendra Reck, Peggy Hill, Debbie Reed, Sue Adomaitis, Chris Cameron, Kay Patton.

Rated officials again helped referee both intramural volleyball and basketball games this year. These girls are required to pass a written exam on the rules of the game and practice officiating during gym class.

"But the dirty part is further back."

The 'Pillars of Journalism' hard at work!

"Got ya last, ha! ha!"

"But I was only going to borrow it."

No, no, Lucia — the good books are on the next shelf.

Blow Edey blow!

Hey boy!

"No interruptions — please!"

Happiness is sitting by the teacher.

Off to the 'Big S'!

"I only need 2 more answers."

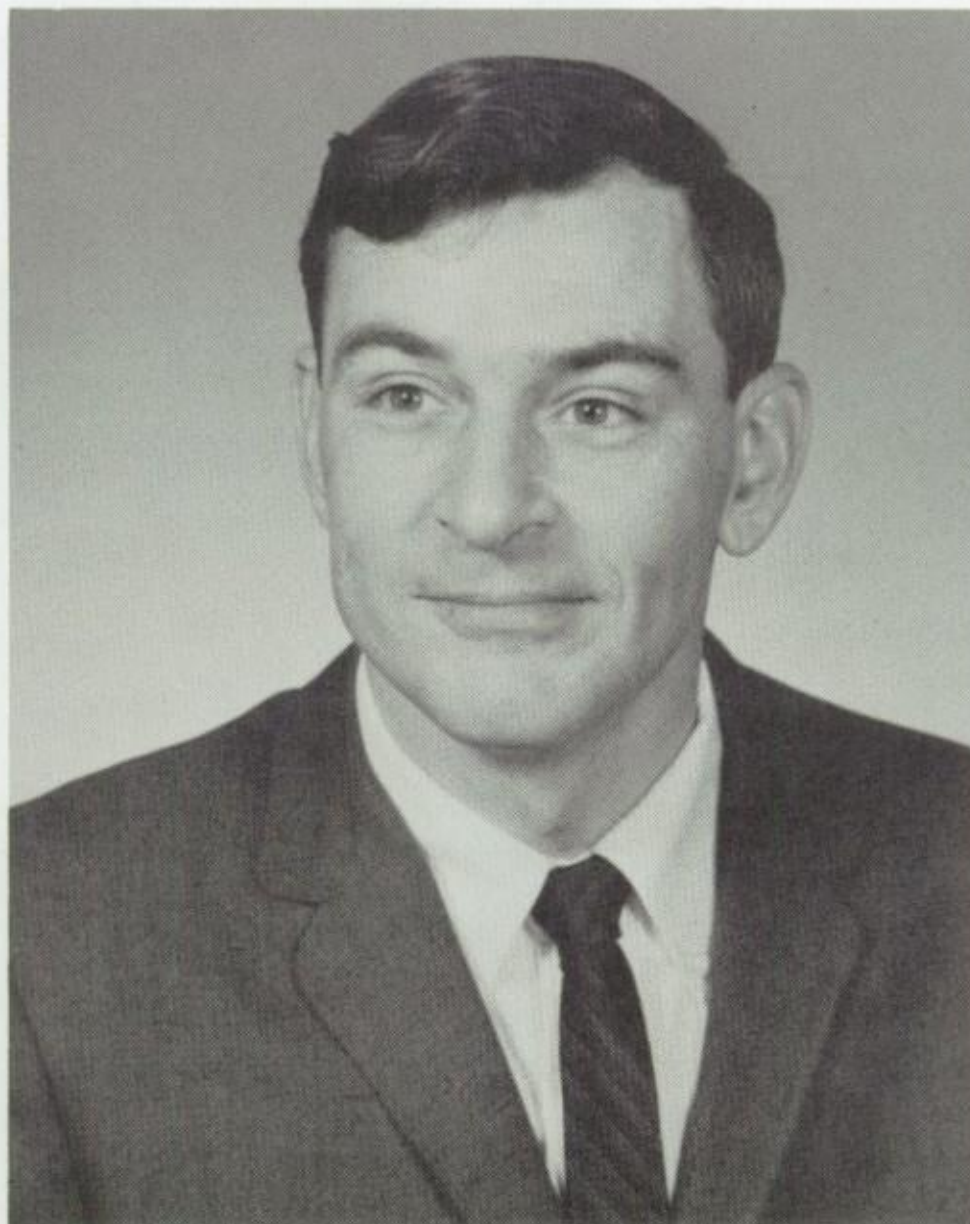

"Don't look now but . . ."

Miss Hance hard at work.

IN APPRECIATION

This year's staff would like to take the opportunity to say a special thanks to Mr. Charles Earl, our advisor. Not only is he responsible for coordinating all the staffs, but is also the one to get in contact with all the printers and other men we never even hear of. Even though his help is invaluable, he made sure he acted only as advisor and let us make important decisions that helps make the Piquonian more personal to us. His numerous counseling duties, make this his last year as Piquonian advisor and we are truly grateful that we had the opportunity to work with him.

There are so many we would like to thank that the list is beginning to scare us, so we will limit it to those who contributed the most. Firstly, Hammer Graphics who prints our yearbook, has been more understanding than we thought possible. The Piqua Daily Call made many pictures available to us as did Mr. Roger Miller and Mr. Jerry Shoemaker. We would like to thank the secretaries, Mrs. Gerhardt and Mrs. Schaurer for their invaluable assistance in identifying students. An extra special thanks goes to Mrs. LeVera Black and Mr. Tyler for always having a cheerful word when things seemed impossible.
